

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Which of the major forms of renewable energy (solar, wind, geothermal, water, biomass, and others) do you think holds the most promise in the future?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

People are getting their news increasingly from websites. What are the advantages and disadvantages of these new online sources of news compared with traditional forms of radio and TV sources?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

The amount of freshwater needed for human use is nearing capacity. While conservation and reducing pollution may both help, in what way can humans best ensure water for our use and for the natural ecosystem?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

There are many benefits of international exchange programs in promoting cultural understanding. Should everyone participate in an international exchange program during their childhood?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Why do you think the Star Spangled Banner became the American national anthem in 1931 instead of other popular choices?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

In bringing food from the farm to the table, food passes through many points, including agriculture, food processing, distribution, and retail. Which part of this chain do you think poses the most health hazards?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

People can experience hearing loss due to loud noises, including music played too loudly on a headset/ear buds. What approach should be taken to help teens understand this health risk?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

Which aspect of biodiversity loss (air quality, climate, water purification, pollination, prevention of erosion, or others) do you think impacts the environment the most? Why?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

What role do you think schools can play in encouraging children to get more sleep?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

If you were the governor of California for a day, in what ways would you help improve the lives of Californian's and California's environment?

2011 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

What factor of biodiversity loss (overpopulation, deforestation, pollution, and climate change) do you think we humans can have the largest positive impact?