

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Science, Engineering and Technology

Taking into consideration a growing world population and the need to produce nutritious food for these people, should food producers (farmers and ranchers) focus on organic or conventional agriculture? Explain and justify your response.

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Science, Engineering and Technology

In California, farmers use a mixture of organic and conventional agricultural techniques. What should the future of California's agriculture look like, considering the need to feed a growing population while protecting the environment?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Healthy Living

What role should schools play in addressing (and disciplining) bullying that takes place on social media when these acts of bullying happen afterschool and off of school grounds?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Citizenship

In the 4-H Revolution of Responsibility campaign, 4-H members conduct service learning projects to address community needs. How can members doing a project improve and increase public visibility of 4-H?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Senior Question

Positive Youth Development

What are the differences between a growth and fixed mindset? How can 4-H help youth grow and develop a growth mindset?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

Science, Engineering and Technology

What task could a robot make easier in your daily life? Explain what the task is, how a robot could do it, and describe any potential risks.

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

Healthy Living

Explain the importance of proper hydration. How can your 4-H Club improve access to drinking water?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

Citizenship

What are the similarities and differences between community service and service learning?

2013 State 4-H Presentation Day – Impromptu Question

Intermediate Question

Positive Youth Development

Describe sparks. How can 4-H junior and teen leaders help nurture younger member's sparks?