

State Leadership Forum 2016

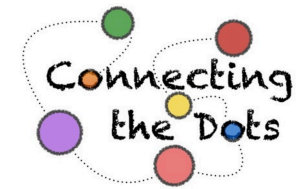

Workshops by Room Assignment

Workshop 1 10:30 - 11:45 am	Workshop 2 1:00 - 2:15 pm	Workshop 3 2:30 - 3:45 pm
Track: Engaging Teens
CA State Ambassadors: Stress Management: For adults and youth alike, it's important to understand major sources of stress for adults vs. teens, to recognize the signs of stress, and to know successful strategies for managing stress.	CA State Ambassadors: How to Thrive in a Youth-Adult partnership! Sometimes it's hard for youth and adults to work together in a meaningful and productive way. This workshop will help project leaders be aware of different levels of Youth-Adult partnership. Attendees will come away with effective strategies for improving youth-adult relationships both within and outside of the 4-H program.	Bruce and Maeve Knoth, Veteran Club and Project Leaders, San Mateo County Working with Teens: Raising the Bar We'll present pragmatic suggestions and activities for working with teens based on our seven years of experience leading Jr/Teen Leader projects (with up to 25 teens actively participating in the leadership group). Activities and topics include "Impromptu Speech Relay Races", addressing gender issues, setting leadership expectations, and having fun along the way.
Track: Diversity
Dr. Lupita Fabregas Assistant Director for Diversity & Expansion/4-H Youth Development Advisor Reaching our Diverse Ethnic Communities: What resources are available to broaden our reach into our communities, and what programs may best support successful engagement? And why is it important that we take on this challenge?	Gemma Miner, Academic Coordinator for Volunteer Development, Citizenship & Leadership, CA 4-H, Moderator Panel including: Dr. Sherry Carinci, Keynote Speaker and Professor, CSU Sacramento Dr. Lupita Fabregas, Assistant Director for Diversity & Expansion/4-H Youth Development Advisor Successfully serving the Spectrum: Join us for a panel discussion from "experts" in working with youth behaviors related to ADD/ADHD, Autism Spectrum Disorders, youth with special	Angela Apple, San Bruno 4-H Community leader and Senior Director of Training, Solar City Working with Other Personalities: This session will help you determine your DISC personality type and how DISC personality factors of Dominance, Influence, Steadiness and Compliance predict your behavior towards others and the everyday things you do. This workshop will be useful in helping you learn more about yourself as you manage interpersonal relations and develop effective leadership practices

State Leadership Forum 2016

Workshops by Room Assignment

Workshop 1 10:30 - 11:45 am	Workshop 2 1:00 - 2:15 pm	Workshop 3 2:30 - 3:45 pm
	physical, social, emotional challenges, as well as ensuring gender equity and working with youth who are LGBTQIA. Panelists will present tips and strategies to help increase inclusion of all youth represented in the diverse communities of CA.
Track: Sustaining 4-H
Paula Allison, Executive Director, California 4-H Foundation, Moderator Panelists: Emmalee Holmes, Intern, San Mateo/San Francisco County 4-H Jennifer Henkens, 4-H Program Representative, Sacramento County Patricia Dixon, 4-H Program Representative, Sacramento County Giving Days – A Panel Discussion to Learn How Your County Can Inspire And Engage Donors Through an Online Fundraising Campaign: Join us to learn how three counties successfully participated in a local or national Giving Day. These 24-hour on-line giving events have become very popular and are a good way to engage your local community. You will learn tips on inspiring your supporters through social media, creating an easy-to-execute action plan and soliciting matching funds to encourage giving.	Paula Allison, Executive Director, California 4-H Foundation, Moderator Panelists: Mary Thieleke Jackson, Director, Board of Directors, California 4-H Foundation, Santa Barbara County and Vicky Bosworth, Chair, Board of Directors, California 4-H Foundation, Santa Clara County The CA 4-H Foundation – Your Fundraising Partner: Join us as we share what the Foundation does and how we can work with you to build your fundraising IQ and capacity. Learn how one county partnered with the Foundation to create a fund development plan and raises up to $200,000 annually for their county. We will discuss fundraising readiness and techniques such as improving your annual appeal.	Scott Mautte, Program Representative for Volunteer Development, CA 4-H Jenna Colburn, Program Representative for Citizenship & Leadership, CA 4-H Kaitlin and Austin Kozlowski UCD Collegiate 4-H Team Leaders Recruiting & Engaging Millennials in Volunteerism: to provide knowledge, resources, strategies and tools to counties to recruit and tap into Millennial era Adult Volunteers.

State Leadership Forum 2016

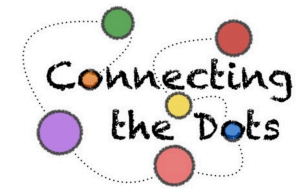

Workshops by Room Assignment

Workshop 1 10:30 - 11:45 am	Workshop 2 1:00 - 2:15 pm	Workshop 3 2:30 - 3:45 pm
Track: Powerful Projects/Project Leader Boosters
Barbara Bray, Keynote Speaker, Co-Founder, Personalize Learning LLC, Co-Author, Make Learning Personal and How to Personalize Learning Learning partnerships: How can you encourage your project members to own and drive the process for projects so as to develop a culture of learning? This workshop will provide strategies using design thinking, inquiry, and ways to encourage more voice and choice into project-based learning. Included will be activities and discussions on how to facilitate personalized learning and engage and motivate your members in the learning process.	Louise Silacci, Past State Council President, and Mary Engebret, Chair, SLF 2016 and Project Leader: Countywide Wildlife Project Discussion Meet: A project to engage our Senior Youth 4-Hers while providing skills most valued by today's employers: the ability to work in groups, research, brainstorm and present effective fact based solutions to today's problems.	Liam McCormick, National 4-H GIS/GPS Team CA youth rep. & CA 4-H Educational Tech. Advisory Committee member Service Learning with Geographical Information Systems (GIS): Workshop participants will gain a basic understanding of what GIS is and why it is important to 4-H. In addition, you will learn how to use it in a service-learning project and make a difference
Track: Club/County Management
Gemma Miner, Academic Coordinator for Volunteer Development, Citizenship & Leadership, CA 4-H Essential Club Community Leader Development: This certification course will give the new Community Club Leader (CCL) basic information that they need in order to provide great leadership to the club from the beginning. 4-H is complex! This course will help new CCLs understand their role, the lingo, programs and due dates,	Scott Mautte Program Representative for Volunteer Development, CA 4-H Extreme Makeover Club Edition: Develop practical strategies to engage ALL youth in a club meeting by creating an environment that reflects the CA 4-H Youth development practices. Participants will walk away with skills on how to build a powerful Club meeting agenda that will involve every club member from the youngest to the oldest, strategies for including non-officers in the meetings and building	Alyssa Sankey Program Representative for Animal Science Education and Curriculum Development Steven Worker, former Lead for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) and current 4-H Youth Development Advisor for Marin County Improved Public Speaking: The new 2016 Presentation Day Manual and Evaluation Process: During the workshop, participants will be given a brief description of the 4-H

State Leadership Forum 2016

Workshops by Room Assignment

Workshop 1 10:30 - 11:45 am	Workshop 2 1:00 - 2:15 pm	Workshop 3 2:30 - 3:45 pm
youth-adult partnership and outreach strategies. Participants will earn the new CCL Essential Training Certificate.	mentoring opportunities between officers and other club members.	Presentation Manual. They will also practice evaluating a filmed presentation using the evaluation rubrics included in the manual. Workshop participants will gain an awareness of best practices to support young people's public speaking abilities, and gain a better understanding of how to improve the evaluation process, including improving inter-rater reliability.
Track: Animal Science and STEM!
Steven Worker, former Lead for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) and current 4-H Youth Development Advisor for Marin County, and Curtis Ullerich, Member of the California 4-H Educational Technology Advisory Committee, and Volunteer, Santa Clara 4-H STEM for Everyone Learn how to integrate STEM into any 4-H project. You'll be able to walk away with a deeper understanding of science, science literacy, how STEM fits into the national and state 4-H program initiatives, and how to integrate STEM into your club's projects!	Dr. Martin Smith, Associate Cooperative Extension Specialist and Professor, UC Davis with appointments in the School of Veterinary Medicine and the Department of Human Ecology Effective Teaching Strategies and New 4-H Animal Science Curricula: This workshop will introduce new 4-H Animal Science Curricula through the use of effective science pedagogy (aka teaching). Strategies will include: guided inquiry, use of effective questioning, experiential learning and applied participation. Participants will learn by doing: making learning fun and connections last.	Molly Watkins, San Joaquin County, Moderator Sally and Martin Pozzi What's a livestock Project? One unique opportunity available to 4-H members is raising, showing and selling a market animal. But, unlike most 4-H projects, livestock requires more time, money and commitment by the member and the family. This workshop will outline these requirements and the skills that members learn. The workshop will also suggest ways to progress from smaller animals into larger more expensive livestock projects.