

EQUINE FIELD DAY 2018 CLINICIANS

- COMBINED DRIVING with ROGER CLEVERLY

Roger Cleverly has worked with many breeds of horses, ponies and Minis for over 39 years, in both the UK and USA. In Britain, he competed in hunter jumping, dressage, horse trials, endurance rides, rode as an amateur in National Hunt steeplechase racing, and was an amateur exercise rider and assistant trainer at Cree Lodge Racing Stables at Ayr in Scotland. He also rode to hounds with the Lanark and Renfrew, and Eglinton Foxhounds.

Since arriving in CA in 1998, Roger has competed in hunter jumping classes, shown ponies in hand and under saddle and has become a skilled whip in carriage driving events. His favorite discipline is Combined Driving [Eventing on wheels]. He now competes a pair of 11 hand Welsh pony geldings [the Welsh Hooligans] and coaches several Combined Driving competitors. In 2016, Melissa Tozzi and her Dutch Riding Pony, Brauerhavens Joshua, won the West Coast Triple Crown championship for Single Ponies at Training level, and in 2017, Kathleen Carlsen and her Mini, Simon, were West Coast Triple Crown champions for Single Very Small Equines [VSE] at Training level.

His specialties are training horses, ponies and minis for driving, and training recreational and competitive drivers. Roger is a member of the American Driving Society (ADS) and the Northern California Driving club (NCDC). In 2013, Roger established a carriage driving training facility near Oakdale, in California's Central Valley, where he has a full size driven dressage court, a fenced training arena, four cross country hazards, and a 3/4-mile marathon training track. He gives clinics for driving clubs and other organizations, including 4-H groups.

Roger is an enthusiastic promoter of British Mountain and Moorland pony breeds and enjoys working with Miniature Horses.
