The 4-H YDP is required to ensure the safety of all its members while participating in 4-H YDP activities. Adult volunteers are responsible for the safety of members during all meetings and activities. 4-H chaperones are responsible for providing supervision of assigned 4-H members who travel to 4-H events that are more than 24 hours and often require an overnight stay.

Directions:

This form is only to be used when a 4-H Adult Volunteer chaperone accompanies the 4-H member in traveling to and from a 4-H event, but the parent(s)/guardians of the 4-H member choose to pick up their child at a 4-H event location instead of the youth returning to the travel starting point with their assigned 4-H Adult Volunteer chaperone.
